Dear Rahim,

Showtime Performing Arts Insurance Policy No. STM3/2189
Policyholder: Rahim Saphy t/a Afrikan Warriors

Thank you for your instructions in respect of the above policy.

We are now pleased to enclose your Policy Documentation, which comprises of:

- Policy Schedule
- Policy Wording
- Certificate of Employers Liability Insurance
- a 'To Whom It May Concern' letter

I would urge you to check through all documentation carefully to ensure you are happy that the information provided therein is correct and that you are satisfied that the cover being required is suitable for your requirements. If you have any questions relating to anything contained within these documents please let us know as soon as possible.

Please note that it is a legal requirement that your Certificate of Employers Liability Insurance is accessible to all employees. This can be done by either prominently displaying the certificate within your premises or in a secure electronic format (e.g. on a staff intranet). A copy of the certificate must also be retained within company records upon expiry of the insurance.

If you have any questions relating to this policy, or in connection with your insurance requirements in general, please do not hesitate to contact me.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

James Eddolls
Commercial Insurance Consultant
